Arizonan Freed As Crowd Cheers; Jury Out 29 Hours

Found Innocent
Joseph Kuykendall, found innocent of the murder of his heiress wife, Ardath, is shown here in a picture taken during the long trial.

Horse Trainer, 34, Thanks Panel; 3 Of Legal Counsel Staff Present

OMAHA (AP) — A district court jury Thursday night found Arizona Horseman Joseph Kuykendall innocent in the death of his heiress wife.

Some 50 persons on hand in the court-room broke into a cheer as the verdict was announced and pushed to the counsel table where the 34-year-old Kuykendall sat with three of his four attorneys.

Thus was ended the longest murder trial in the memory of Omaha court attaches—a marathon of 31 days spread over 6½ weeks.

The jury of eight women and four men was out 29 hours before returning its verdict.

Kuykendall was charged with first degree murder after his 30-year-old bride was found, bloody and dying, in their $3,700 house trailer during the 1953 Ak-Sar-Ben horse race meeting here.

Mrs. Ardath (Noni) Kuykendall was an eight-times married beneficiary of a New England fortune. Joseph, whom she met at a Dragoon, Ariz., ranch, was described by one witness as the best horse-shoer "in Arizona or New Mexico."

Made Will

Thirteen days before Ardath's death, she made out a will leaving the bulk of her estate to her husband.

Investigating officers said Mrs. Kuykendall appeared to have suffered a beating at the time she was found dying here but in the trial there developed testimony also that she was ill, given to heavy drinking and the use of drugs.

Expert testimony was brought in to show she could have received her injuries by falling, particularly if she were intoxicated at the time.

Little mention was made during the trial of Mrs. Kuykendall's reputed wealth and there was no testimony to show its extent. But she was reported to have an $85,000 a year income from a trust fund set up by her grandfather, Benjamin Franklin Smith, said to have been the wealthiest man in New England at the time of his death in 1927.

Judge Carroll O. Staffer had given the jury a choice of verdicts of innocent or guilty of first degree murder, second degree murder or manslaughter. The state, asking a first degree murder verdict, had not sought the death penalty.

Kuykendall was defended by a legal team consisting of former congressman Eugene O'Sullivan, Sr.; Bernard Boyle, national Democratic committee man; Hugh Boyle, his brother, and Alfred Raneri. All but O'Sullivan were present when the verdict was returned.

Two young prosecutors, Chief Deputy County Attorney Robert McGowan and Deputy County Attorney M. Robert Fromkin, handled the state's case.

Speaks To Jury

After the judge had given Kuykendall his formal notification he could walk from the courtroom—a "free man"—Kuykendall asked permission to speak to the jury.

He stepped into the box and shook the hand of each juror, saying little and shaking his head in obvious happiness as he moved down the line.

He said very little to well-wishers but just clasped their hands and shook his head.

His mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Kuykendall of Phoenix, Ariz., and 19-year-old brother Marlin seemed almost overcome with happiness. As she left the courtroom Mrs. Kuykendall wore a broad smile for the first time since she first entered it more than six weeks ago.

Kuykendall's attorneys, all courtroom veterans expressed obvious satisfaction at the verdict.

"Of course we're pleased," said Bernard Boyle. "We've always believed him innocent." He added that the verdict proved the jury was able to "sift out the facts from the mass of testimony."

His brother Hugh Boyle, expressed his confidence in the outcome more indirectly. He said the news of the imminent verdict awoke him from an early evening nap.

Raneri, wearing a broad smile, could say little.

O'Sullivan was not present when the verdict was returned.

China Policy Brings Dean, Welker Fight

Envoy Says Attack Will Hinder Work

NEW YORK (INS) — Arthur H. Dean, American envoy to the Korean peace negotiations, declared Thursday night that an attack on him by Sen. Herman Welker (R-Idaho) would "hinder" his work in Korea and "spread confusion" regarding the peace conference talks.

Dean said:

"Senator Welker's statement will be a great aid to the Communists."

"They have succeeded in getting a very strong anti-Communist to attack me in order to spread confusion and to divide our Allies and they are undoubtedly chortling with glee at their success."

Sen. Welker accused Dean on the Senate floor Thursday of "chanting collaboration" with Communism.

Dean retorted:

"Communism is repugnant to every idea for which I stand. In my judgment, it should be fought tooth and nail. I am against the appeasement of the U.S.S.R., Red China, North Korea, or any other Communist government or movement."

He added bluntly:

"I am not in favor of the recognition of Red China or its admission to the United Nations."

Welker, in the first attack on an administration figure in this session of Congress, claimed Dean's views coincided with that of what he called "pro-Red China apologists in the State Department" who hold that the Chinese Reds are more interested in developing themselves in China than they are in international Communism.

In a five-page statement Dean said Welker's attack was inspired by Alfred Kohberg, Kohberg is the alleged head of the supposed "China lobby" supporting Chiang Kai-shek.

Bus Firms May Cancel Cut Rates

Indication Given At Jeary Meeting

Bus company officials involved in the half fare rides for women shoppers into Omaha from 47 Nebraska cities have indicated to Mayor Clark Jeary that the new rate plan may be withdrawn.

Meeting with Jeary the day after the mayor issued a protest to the plan were L. B. Hibbs, general sales manager for Greyhound from Omaha, D. A. Scott, Lincoln traffic manager for American, and David Barbour, Lincoln Bus Depot manager. The same group also met later in the day with Archie Baley of the Chamber of Commerce and Jack Bergstrom, secretary of the Lincoln Promotion Council.

Both Jeary, the Chamber and Council asked the two companies involved to withdraw their application for the rate before the State Railway Commission.

"American," said Jeary, "was quite willing to ask the Commission to withdraw its order permitting the half fares. The Greyhound representative was not as decisive but stated he would review the matter immediately with his higher authorities in Omaha."

An answer to Lincoln's request, said Jeary, was promised no later than Monday morning.

"Discrimination"

Jeary stated he would still be opposed to the plan even if expanded to include Lincoln and some other towns. He would still be discrimination, he said, against whatever towns were not included.

Valley Auto Crash Kills Airmen, 27

VALLEY, Neb. (AP) — A 27-year-old Airmen was killed and another critically injured Thursday after their English sport car crashed on a curve 1½ miles south of Valley on Highway 98.

Raymond Fisher, stationed at the Elkhorn Radar Station, was dead on arrival at an Omaha hospital.

Joseph Green, 28, also from the radar station, was in a hospital with a skull fracture, broken back, broken right leg, broken ribs, shock and concussion.

Highway Patrolman Frank Campbell said the car apparently went out of control on the curve, wavered along the shoulder, and then struck a driveway. It overturned, smashed a power pole and ended in a ditch.

Campbell said he didn't know which of the two were driving.

The death brought to 14 the number of persons who have lost their lives in Nebraska traffic accidents this year.

Marilyn And Joe Married; 500 Mob Civil Ceremony

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Gorgeous Marilyn Monroe and Joe DiMaggio were married Thursday in what was supposed to have been a quiet ceremony, but wasn't.

Municipal Judge Charles S. Peery, read the civil ceremony in his chambers while an estimated crowd of 500 jammed the corridors of city hall.

The curvaceous actress and the former Yankee baseball slugger didn't even let the judge know their plans until early Thursday afternoon. They wanted a quiet wedding with no fanfare.

Yet by the time they were married the crowd was so thick DiMaggio, his best man, restaurant manager Reno Barsocchini and Lefty O'Doul, had to elbow a pathway for Marilyn to the elevator.

She was bare headed, wearing a dark brown broadcloth suit with a wide white ermine collar. She carried a corsage of three white orchids.

"We're very happy," Marilyn said. DiMaggio just grinned.

Sally Hall Will Edit NU 'Nebraskan'

Sally A. Hall of Holdrege, is the new editor of the Nebraskan student newspaper at the University of Nebraska. She succeeds Ken Rystrom of Bayard.

Her selection was announced Friday by the student publication committee, a joint faculty-student authority.

Miss Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Hall, said she is in full agreement with the stand taken by the Nebraskan on the controversy over Coach Bill Glassford. The student paper has editorially demanded the resignation of the coach.

However, she said other policies of the paper may be changed during the semester particularly in the field of politics. No sweeping revisions are planned for the paper, she said, since she assisted Rystrom in drawing up plans for the last semester.

The 21-year-old University senior will be graduated from the School of Journalism in June. She has spent the last four semesters as a Nebraskan staff member and has worked for the paper since she was a freshman. Miss Hall was managing editor during the fall term.

Other staff members selected by the student publication committee are:

Kay Nosky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Nosky, North Platte, news editor.

Thomas A. Woodward, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Woodward, Beatrice, editor, editorial page.

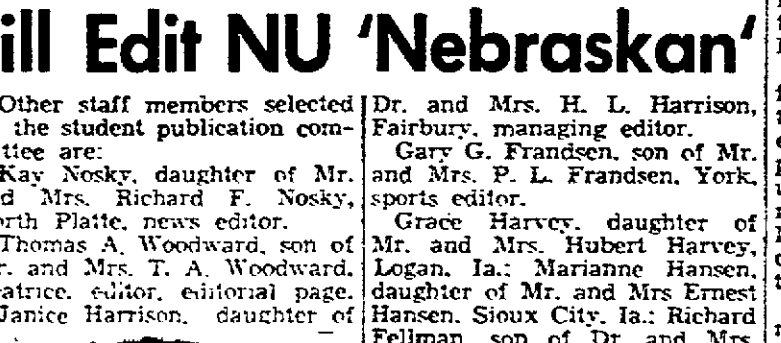

Janice Harrison, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Harrison, Fairbury, managing editor.

Gary G. Frandsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Frandsen, York, sports editor.

Grace Harvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Harvey, Logan, Ia.; Marianne Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hansen, Sioux City, Ia.; Richard Fellman, son of Dr. and Mrs. Leon Fellman, Omaha; and Janice D. Carman, daughter of Dr. Frank D. Carman, Omaha, copy editors.

Marx Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Peterson, Central City, agriculture editor.

The committee, in keeping with mid-year custom, made little change in the paper's business staff. Stan Sipple, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Sipple of Nebraska City, continues as business manager, and two assistant business managers were reappointed: Chester F. Singer, Jr., of Lincoln, and Doran Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jacobs of Deadwood, S. D. Scott Chiles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren D. Chiles of Omaha, was appointed as third assistant business manager, and Ronald D. Innes, son of Dr. and Mrs. Guy A. Innes, Phillipsburg, Kas., was appointed circulation manager.

35 Squad Members Charge They Had Fear Of Coach

... Signed Statement Demanding Resignation Is Released

By NORRIS ANDERSON
Sports Editor, The Star

That long-awaited list of players demanding the resignation of Bill Glassford, head football coach at Nebraska, exploded Thursday night in a blaze of 35 signatures of undergraduate squad members.

Representing themselves as "the members of the active varsity," the players released to the press a statement demanding the resignation of Glassford. At the bottom of the list, they signed their names for publication.

"It was a case of the squad drafting a statement of their unified position against Coach Bill Glassford," commented Max Kitzelman, one of the spokesmen for the group.

The players charged that they had a fear of Glassford, explaining: "If a player does or says the wrong thing, he will be ridiculed, embarrassed and be faced with the threat of losing his scholarship or never having the opportunity of playing again."

Seven Leaders

Along with Kitzelman, 230-pound junior tackle from Omaha, the other players who started the petition were revealed as Bob Oberlin, Wisconsin; Ken Moore, junior from Mount Vernon, Ia.; Rex Fischer, sophomore from Oakland; Bob Smith, junior from Grand Island; Jim Yeisley, junior from Coon, Ia.; and Dan Brown, junior from Sioux Falls, S. D.

All of that group have lettered except Moore and Fischer, who narrowly missed lettering last fall.

Following a meeting last week between squad members and Dave Noble and Willard "Dutch" Witte of the Athletic Board, members of the squad were called together by the eight man committee and the petition was formed.

There were 44 men at the meeting when the paper was prepared.

The press was called to the Student Union Thursday night where all of the 35 signers were gathered.

"We want you to know how the football squad really feels and to clear the air of all the false reports," a spokesman for the squad told the reporters.

Glassford Absent

Glassford who had been asked to resign earlier in the week by the Regents, Athletic Board and Acting Chancellor John K. Sellick, did not attend the meeting.

The Lincoln Star was first to contact Glassford and your reporter read the entire statement to him, along with names of the players who had signed.

Openly crestfallen, Glassford said wearily: "I just don't understand it."

To this, the Husker coach added a firm "No Comment."

Dr. Walter K. Beggs, chairman of the Athletic Board, when called by The Star, said he felt unqualified to comment about the meeting of players because he had not attended. He did not know when the next meeting of the Athletic Board and Board of Regents would be held.

Postponed until next week before the player statement broke, the boards may declare an emergency meeting. It was coach-player relations which caused the university to ask for Glassford's resignation, but now the problem is how to deal with the coach's iron-bound 10 year contract.

Acting Chancellor Sellick did not choose to comment on the player statement.

The players emphasized that the statement was "a matter in which only the football squad was involved" with no outsiders in on the situation.

Players on the list who lettered last fall included Oberlin, Smith, Kitzelman, Glantz and Bryant. All were starters.

Non lettermen (for 1953) included Fischer, Brown; Dirks Rolston, Forsyth, Mont.; Jim Yeisley, Coon, Ia.; John Edwards, North Platte; Sylvester Harris, Kansas City, Mo.; Dick Moore, Mount Vernon, Ia.; Ken Moore, Mount Vernon, Ia.; Dean Lux, North Bend; Pev Evans, Sioux Falls, S. D.; Quinlyn Anderson, Oakland; Leo Scherer, Jr., North Platte; Jack Braley, Miles City, Mont., and Don Hewitt, Rapid City, S. D. They are all sophomores and juniors.

Freshmen included Allan Deines, Scottsbluff; Dave Koile, Omaha; Jerry Peterson, Cambridge; Don Comstock, Scottsbluff; Joe Kobza, Ulysses, Gordon Englert, Duluth, Minn.; Dick Harkins, Worland, Wyo.; Jim Murphy, Columbus; Jerry Warren, Spray, N.C.; Gale Lair, Omaha; Darwin Blair, Cozad; Peterson, Deines, and Murphy were generally regarded as the outstanding linemen on the frosh squad. Harkins and Comstock have been listed as backfield standouts.

Non-Signers

The only undergraduates who lettered last year and who were not on the list were Andy Loehr, Turtle Creek, Pa.; Dennis Korinek, Ulysses, and Jon McWilliams, Sidney.

McWilliams and Loehr were described as "working and unable to attend."

Players on the list who quit football for baseball are Jim Cederdahl, Lincoln, and Bill Giles, Alliance.

PLAYERS' STATEMENT

The following is the statement, released by undergraduate members of the University of Nebraska football team Thursday night, demanding the resignation of Coach Bill Glassford:

"We, the members of the active varsity, do as a unit make this situation public as the truth."

"The actions that we have undertaken were our own doing and we were not influenced from outside parties."

"It was the whole team that was behind it, not a few disgruntled players. Our stand is not that Coach Glassford is a taskmaster or a slave driver, but that this ultimate action was a result of friction between Glassford and the players over the past years."

"No one on the squad ever knew exactly how he stood with the coach and never felt free to talk to him as an individual. We would like the public to know the element of our fear."

"That fear being that if a player does or says the wrong thing, he will be ridiculed, embarrassed and be faced with the threat of losing his scholarship or never having the opportunity to play again."

"We do not feel that we can have a winning football team or top morale with the conditions that have existed in the past."

"The team has expressed the fact that for the betterment of the university and the football team that the resignation of Head Coach Bill Glassford is a must."

Sen. Morse Says Americans Should Elect Demo Congress

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse (Ind-Ore) said Thursday "The American people to protect their interests should elect a Democratic Congress in 1954."

He told the National Rural Electric Co-operative Association that a "new administration" was needed in Washington.

"The Eisenhower big business administration has been giving the farmer, the consumer and even certain industries 'the business,' he said.

"In the long run, its shocking favoritism to the private utilities will only hurt private enterprise," he declared.

The independent senator from Oregon told some 5,000 cheering delegates that:

"This administration's utility attack upon orderly and progressive resource development is being made in every part of the country—Niagara, the St. Lawrence, Georgia, the Southwest, the Tennessee Valley, the Missouri Basin, California and the Pacific Northwest."

"But in every area, the little people are fighting back. The co-ops, the Grange, the Farmers Union, some local Farm Bureaus are working for a decent program in the interest of all of the people."

"There has been limited success in the Missouri Basin," he continued. "The national Hells Canyon Association is waging a magnificent battle against the Hells Canyon giveaway to the Idaho Power Co."

Morse said the battles waged by Sen. George W. Norris for TVA and REA "must be fought again."

"If those battles are to be won, we need . . . a friendly administration," he continued.

"As a first step toward that end, the American people should elect a Democratic Congress in 1954."

Turning to economics, the senator said "The national economy is slowing down. We are already in a farm recession. Unemployment is becoming alarming. In the northwest it is already a major problem."

Crosby, Wagener To Hold Debate On Operation Honesty

Gov. Robert Crosby and Lancaster County Attorney Frederick Wagener have accepted the invitation of American Legion Post No. 3 to discuss "Operation Honesty" and its ramifications at the February American Legion meeting.

The meeting will be held Monday, Feb. 8, at 8 p.m. at the Lincoln Hotel.

Wagener has charged that "Operation Honesty" is "publicity maintained to divert the public's attention from the real nature of the tax problem, and the lack of an adequate tax program."

—like Asks Hike in Social Security Payments— Top Retired Benefit Of $108 Is Proposed ... Rep. Reed Promptly Introduces Bills

WASHINGTON (P) — President Eisenhower urged Congress Thursday to boost Social Security benefits quickly for America's older citizens and give 10 million more people protection from "the fear ... of destitution."

Eisenhower also asked that the amount of income taxed for pension purposes be raised from $3,600 to $4,200, and that retired persons be allowed to earn more at part time jobs without losing social security benefits.

Changing the tax base would mean that workers making more than $3,600 would find up to $12 more a year in social security deductions coming out of their pay checks. Their employers would have to meet the amounts.

In a special 2,700-word message to the lawmakers, the President proposed increases in both the lowest and highest amounts paid to retired persons or their survivors. He left it to Secretary of Welfare Hobbie to fill in details for congressional committees later on.

But Chairman Daniel A. Reed (R-NY) of the House Ways and Means Committee beat Mrs. Hobbie to it.

$5 to $13.50 Boosts

Minimum payments for retired individuals now are $25 a month, the maximum benefits $85 and the average around $50. For the Social Security system to "fulfill its purpose of helping to combat destitution," Eisenhower said, "these benefits are too low."

Reed said the plan is to provide increases ranging from $5 a month at the lowest level to $13.50 at the top for those now getting pensions. For persons retiring after the projected beginning of the tax base, the maximum could rise to $108.50—$23.50 over the present ceiling.

A wife gets half as much pension as her retired husband, so she would get a proportionate boost. So would widows and surviving children. The maximum benefits for a family could go up from $168.75 to $190 a month.

Reed introduced two separate bills to carry out the Eisenhower recommendations and said his committee would consider them in March, with full public hearings.

By the time they clear the House and Senate, might be late summer or early fall. And bigger benefits might be coming along for some six million persons already on the rolls not long before the November elections in which the Republicans will be battling to keep control of Congress.

Early Action Urged

The bills say the increases shall become effective the last day of the month following the month in which they are enacted.

Calling his proposals "constructive and positive steps" to "promote the economic security of the individual," Eisenhower urged "early and favorable consideration" upon Congress.

"The human problems of individual citizens," he said, "are a proper and important concern of our government."

For the most part, Congress seemed to like the Eisenhower proposals. Key members predicted at least some of them are sure to become law, perhaps not exactly the way Eisenhower wants them but generally in line with his recommendations.

Reed said the plan is to provide increases ranging from $5 a month at the lowest level to $13.50 at the top for those now getting pensions. For persons retiring after the projected beginning of the tax base, the maximum could rise to $108.50—$23.50 over the present ceiling.

U.S. May End Berlin Wrangle

Compromise On Big 4 Talk Site Expected

WASHINGTON (P) — The United States was reported willing Thursday night to end the wrangle with Russia over the site of the Big Four foreign ministers conference in order to get it started on time Jan. 25.

Preliminary talks have bogged down in Berlin on the site question, but it was understood the United States would compromise at the next meeting, probably Friday afternoon.

The Russians have been insisting that half the Big Four talks be held in the Soviet-controlled East Zone of Berlin and half in the allied controlled Western Zone. The United States, Britain and France had been holding out for a straight rotation among each of the four powers, thus making it three meetings in the West to one in the east.

Give In

Informed quarters said Thursday night the United States, in line with a policy to head off any Communist stall which would delay the foreign ministers meeting, was prepared to give in on the site detail. The feeling was that it is much too minor a detail on which to make a stand which would delay the meeting.

High school students representing 22 different schools in four states will gather at Nebraska Wesleyan University Friday for a fifth annual invitational debate tournament.

Wesleyan Debate Coach Adam J. Mueller said team trophies will be awarded for the outstanding efforts in debate and for the best overall record in team and individual competition.

In addition, the two outstanding speakers in the tournament will be awarded scholarships to Nebraska Wesleyan and gold medals will be given to the winners of the individual events.

The competition will get underway Friday with three preliminary rounds of debate and preliminaries in the individual events—original oratory, extemporaneous speaking and radio newscasting.

Finals in team events and individual contests will be held Saturday morning with an awards session scheduled for 1 p.m. Saturday.

News Around The Globe

Defense Pact OK'd

SEOUL (Friday) (AP) — South Korea's National Assembly today voted unanimous approval of a defense pact with the United States.

Case 'Doom' Seen

DETROIT (P) — The case against four men charged with conspiracy in the 1948 assassination attempt on CIO President Walter Reuther Thursday was apparently doomed unless a key witness-defendant can be persuaded to return to the United States and testify.

Wayne County (Detroit) Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien, stunned by the refusal of the witness, Donald Ritchie to return to the United States after his surrender at Preston, Ont., Tuesday night, said his case against the four men was doomed unless Ritchie changes his mind.

Tax Cut Approved

WASHINGTON (P) — The House Ways and Means Committee, bowing to a long-time plea from business circles, approved Thursday a three-year program of sharp reductions in taxes on income from dividends.

Staff experts said the proposed changes would mean a saving of 240 million dollars for about four million taxpaying stockholders the first year.

The ultimate loss in revenue was estimated at from 500 million to one billion dollars annually, when the cuts reach full effect. A majority of committee Democrats reportedly resisted the move, but were voted down in a closed-door committee session.

No conclusions were reached by the City Council at its first meeting to find a replacement for Welfare and Safety Director Ray Osborn who has resigned to enter private business.

The Council, according to Councilman Chauncey W. D. Kinsey, considered a number of persons for the job and also discussed revisions in certain departments. All Council members, he said, wanted additional time to consider the issue.

Another meeting has been scheduled for a week from this Thursday, said Kinsey, and "we hope to conclude the matter at that time."

The meeting was held at Mayor Clark Jeary's home. Jeary could not be reached for comment after the meeting.

14 Clemency Pleas Face Pardon Board

Pleas for clemency by 11 penitentiary inmates and three from the Men's Reformatory will be heard by the State Pardon Board at their meeting Feb. 16.

Frank Miller, 29, Yakima, Wash., who was sentenced to an additional 15 years in 1948 for escaping from the penitentiary and robbing the John Lamb family near Walton is asking clemency.

He has completed serving an eight year sentence for manslaughter for his participation with another man in beating to death Jamie Paine in the jail at Grand Island in 1943. The pardon board had commuted this sentence to six years shortly before he escaped in 1947.

Harry Moore, 61, Benkelman, serving 25 years for second degree murder in connection with the killing of George Walsh in Dundy County in 1946 also seeks clemency. Chris Cortright was found guilty of firing the shot that killed Walsh during a drinking party.

If released Moore is wanted in Kansas as a parole violator to serve the balance of his term.

Others to be heard by the board are:

Ellis I. Cummings, 39, Colorado Springs, grand larceny, 3 years, 1933.

Richard Campbell, 19, Fremont, burglary, 1-3 years and one year for escape, 1924.

Alfred N. Hunter, 37, Piedmont, S.C., grand larceny, Douglas, 3 years, 1932.

Robert E. Adams, 24, Omaha, forgery, Douglas, 5 years, 1932.

Eugene F. Lytle, 27, Minneapolis, auto theft, Gage, 7 years, 1930.

Lester Smoot, 43, Pocahontas, Ida., forgery, Lancaster, 13 years, 1940.

William Kolb, 31, Lincoln, burglary, Lancaster, 13 years, 1933.

John Starr, 44, St. Paul, Minn., grand larceny, Lincoln, 2 years, 1933.

Thos. Tippery, 33, Missouri Valley, Ia., grand larceny, Thurston, 5 years, 1933.

Reformatory

Albert Callaway, 22, Fremont, car theft, Lancaster, 13 years, 1932.

D. R. Bergauzel, 19, Council Bluffs, larceny by bailor, Red Willow, 12 years, 1932.

Jesse Ramirez, Old Mexico, breaking and entering, Scotts Bluff, 12 years, 1933.

The famed Lewis and Clark expedition touched the southeastern tip of Nebraska in July, 1804, while traveling by boat up the Missouri River to explore the Louisiana Purchase country. Later, they were to hold the first American council with Indians west of the Mississippi — near present-day Fort Calhoun.

Another "ancient chapter" from Nebraska history is the one-time attitude toward taverns. Today, modern tavern operation is as clean-cut and law abiding as any business. And taverns are a respected part of community living!

Fall From Boxcar Fatal To Omaha

OMAHA (P) — James Heavey, 65, Omaha, suffered fatal injuries Thursday when he fell from the top of a boxcar while working near the Armour & Co. packing plant.

Heavey, a switchman for the South Omaha terminal railroad, suffered severe head cuts and a possible skull fracture. A railroad superintendent, H. G. Nielsen, told officers he did not know what caused Heavey to fall. The train did not pass over Heavey.

High In The Rockies

In the upper North Platte watershed of Wyoming and the western-most fringe of Nebraska, talk now is of a scarcity of irrigation water. Water in the reservoirs is at a low level. Worse, snowfall in the high mountains, particularly along the eastern slopes of the Rockies, is said to be below normal.

There may be some sense to this business of anticipating the worse while hoping for the best.

Usually the heaviest snowfall on the eastern slopes of the Rockies comes in February and March, and frequently as late as in April.

Those late winter and early spring snowstorms seem to contain a higher moisture content, which may be something of an illusion due to the fact that the subsoil of the mountain areas already has been satisfied by the moisture of early winter storms.

It is encouraging, however, to note that people are giving more attention to one of the simplest facts of life, namely to water supplies. It is reflected in the concern over reservoir storage and in the mounting plans for the expansion of well irrigation.

Water has come to take the place of gold.

As A Matter Of Record

Lincoln's school board is understandably interested in the amount of tax revenue it collects. It faces the demand and the need for a constantly improved and expanded plant—a curriculum in step with educational developments, and finally, an enlarged, strengthened facility.

A news story telling of its study of payments made in lieu of taxes by the electric facilities of this community seems to be slightly misleading. Mention is made that Consumers pays the school board in lieu of taxes an amount set by the state Legislature of 1941. It aggregated $35,758.92 at that time. The news story did not mention that this amount was the exact amount paid to the Lincoln school board by the private utility the year previous. In 1953, the news story said, this payment in lieu of taxes had increased only to $36,166.46.

The Lincoln city light department, the story states, paying five per cent of its income to the school district and others, paid $7,918.34 in 1944, and in 1953, $21,114.53. No mention is made in that report that until Consumers upon its own initiative, though the action of its board of directors, honestly seeking to maintain tax contributions to the schools, set the pattern, the city light plant made no payments in lieu of taxes and made no pretense of making payments in lieu of taxes. It was Consumers which set the pattern, and which should be given credit for establishing it. In generous spirit, let it be said that the city light plant followed the policy of contributing no tax money to any of the political subdivisions through the years it was getting itself rooted because there had been no practice of payments in lieu of taxes.

Nor does the story reveal that it has been the practice of the Lincoln school board in recent years to buy most of its electricity from the city light department, which may be one reason why the payment in lieu of taxes reflects the increase set forth in the figures.

Consumers pays not only to Lincoln but to all school districts in communities served by Consumers, and to all other political subdivisions within those communities.

Germany Speaks

West Germany has chided its European neighbors. Tired of hearing complaints about the character and amount of American aid, the Germans advised them to set about amounting to something, to face up to the long-needed tasks of establishing sound economies, political order and healthy trade. They reminded that order can not be imported. It has to be built at home out of a national willingness to make sacrifices for a common cause.

Those are potent words and the best acknowledgement of America's efforts for Europe yet to be heard. It is noteworthy that they were uttered by a former enemy—not by an ally.

The future position of Germany in the Western family is not yet clear. Its past has been one of forceful opposition—a challenger. But it cannot be gainsaid that that truly defeated nation accepted the American aid program at face value, proving its validity by strong deeds. A strong German economy has arisen from ashes. It is the most ready today to go along shoulder to shoulder with the West against the formidable Red antagonist. And whether its neighbors like its challenging advice or not, they cannot deny that the West Germans have themselves provided the evidence that make their words ring true.

Some Explaining To Do

The Nebraska State Railway Commission has some explaining to do, it would appear, in approving without the formality of a hearing, without opportunity for public information and discussion a plan by bus companies for half-fare bus rides to Omaha for women shoppers from 47 Nebraska towns and cities.

The commission could not have been unaware that its so-called "trial" order was discriminatory. It discriminates against bus patrons who use the bus facilities but cannot qualify as women shoppers. It could be interpreted to discriminate against other forms of transportation. But most of all, it was a strange development if the commission gave any thought at all to the understandable reaction to be expected from merchants in the 47 towns and cities.

There are times when the Nebraska State Railway Commission gives the impression that it is one of the useless appendages of state government. Those are the occasions when it seems to have drifted a long ways away from the objectives for which the commission originally was established. To encourage discrimination between certain classes of transportation facility users certainly was not one of those objectives. The commission was set up to eliminate discrimination and to protect the public. Mayor Clark Jeary is to be commended for his protest against the commission's order.

Justice Department Sees Airline Trust

WASHINGTON—The Eisenhower administration almost scared the shirt off big business the other day.

It did so when the Justice Department showed its teeth on anti-trust prosecutions in a more glowing manner than Thurman Arnold and Franklin D. Roosevelt. What it did was bring suit against Pan American Airways, long considered the sacred cow of both Republicans and Democrats.

A few weeks ago Sam Pryor, vice president of Pan American in charge of Washington lobbying, spoke with confidence about the Eisenhower administration.

"Things have changed in Washington," he said happily. "We don't have to take all that guff we used to take. And we're not going to tolerate it."

Sam had reason to be happy and confident. In the first place, he was long a member of the Republican national committee from Connecticut, a top manager of Wendell Willkie, and a generous money-raiser for the Republicans. So even though his friend and wirepuller for Pan American, Sen. Owen Brewster of Maine, had been defeated, Sam had every reason to expect well of the Eisenhowerites.

He knew that, back in the Hoover administration, Pan American had been able to get Postmaster General Brown to send an amazing and unprecedented instruction to the State Department asking that "all practical assistance be given to the Pan American-Grace Airways in preference to any other American company."

This was in violation of the age-old ruling that the U.S. government does not favor any one company abroad at the expense of another.

FDR LOVED PAN AM

Even under Democratic administrations, Pan American continued to get just as many favors. Ed Stettinius, brother-in-law of Juan Trippe, Pan American president, was long in the Roosevelt administration and for a time a member of the cabinet. FDR liked both Ed and Juan Trippe and he also liked Pan Am. The latter got the heaviest mail subsidies—and still does. And, when trust-busting Thurman Arnold, assistant attorney general, proposed prosecuting Pan American for violation of the Sherman antitrust act, he was stopped dead in his tracks.

"If you insist on this," warned Attorney General Robert Jackson, "you'll have to resign."

Arnold backed away for a time, but still made noises about going after Pan American. Shortly thereafter and much to his own surprise, he was abruptly promoted to the U.S. Court of Appeals.

Imagine the surprise of the aviation world, therefore, and particularly Sam Pryor, when the Eisenhower administration this week slapped exactly the same antitrust suit on Pan American that Roosevelt had vetoed. Pan Am with the Grace Steamship Lines and their subsidiary, Pa-nagra, were charged with monopolizing air transportation between the United States and Latin America.

Ironically, the suit came shortly after Robert C. Hill, vice president of Grace, was rewarded by the Eisenhower administration by being made U.S. ambassador to Costa Rica.

Note—Latest wise crack among Washington lawyers: "How soon will assistant Attorney General Stanley Barnes be promoted to the supreme court?" (In addition to Arnold's promotion to the court of appeals when he tried to sue Pan Am, Harlan F. Stone, then attorney general, was appointed to the supreme court by Calvin Coolidge when he insisted on prosecuting Andy Mellon's Aluminum Corporation of America. Mellon was then Secretary of the Treasury and a cabinet colleague of Stone's.)

150,000 AUTO THEFTS

Senate investigators are calling upon the automobile industry to supply the answer to the nation's most common juvenile crime—auto thefts.

The Hendrickson committee, investigating juvenile delinquency, has found that nearly 150,000 autos are stolen each year, mostly by teen-age kids. If cars could be made tamper-proof, it would help curb this flagrant contribution to delinquency.

As a result, the committee will invite industry spokesmen to explain what is being done to protect automobiles from juvenile "hot wire" specialists. This is the name given to auto thieves who pick the ignition lock, cross certain wires and start the car without a key.

Committee investigators have found that thieves usually break into a car by forcing the side window-vent or picking the outside lock. What is needed, they say, is a side window that can't be smashed or forced, an outside lock that can't be picked and an inside lock on the ignition.

CHURCHILL IRKED

Prime Minister Churchill has sent a diplomatic though pointed warning to President Eisenhower that Britain wants to be kept fully informed during the secret Russian-American talks on atomic energy.

Churchill has sent a special message to the White House pointing out that Britain, as an atomic power and ally of the United States, must be consulted every step of the way.

He did not say so, but Churchill is reported to be burned up because Britain has been frozen out of the first stage of the talks. The old British war horse believes Eisenhower and Dulles are doing exactly what they urged him not to do—namely, talk to the Russians in secret.

Eisenhower has now promised the British embassy that they will get a day-by-day fill-in on the talks but, even so, Churchill is still fuming.

MARQUIS CHILDS

President With Benson But Success Doubtful

WASHINGTON—The struggle between the President and the Congress that has all along been inevitable is now front and center on the political stage. It will go on for many months and the outcome is, to say the least, uncertain.

The biggest and the loudest controversy is already shaping up over the President's proposal for flexible as opposed to fixed farm price supports. This gets down to fundamental differences in both economics and politics.

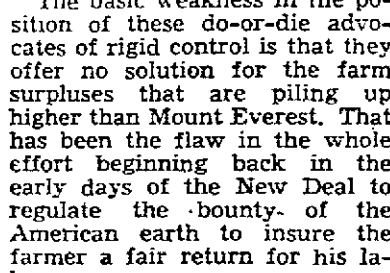

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson has had his way in the first phase. The Eisenhower proposal reflects Benson's deep—one may almost say religious—conviction that the American farmer must be freed from rigid controls determining what he shall plant and what he may sell. The report of some months ago that the President would drop his Secretary of Agriculture as a consequence of the growing volume of protest from the farm states is seen to have been mere speculation.

As to the second phase on Capitol Hill, the advocates of fixed 90 per cent of parity are already claiming that theirs will be the final victory. And they have good reason to make that claim. They have repeatedly shown that, in accord with that homely prescription for victory, they can get there fastest with the mostest veils.

Their strength is in farm areas where prices have been slipping and where ancient patterns of agriculture are menaced by new competition. As senators from the Southwest pointed out on the Senate floor, the best of producing cotton in the deep South is anywhere up twice as much as the cost of raising cotton in Arizona and California. Southern Democrats are as one in their adamant support of 90 per cent of parity.

Some Midwest Republicans are nearly as vociferous in a determination to accept nothing less than present supports. In a highly significant change of emphasis, Senator Joseph McCarthy, Republican of Wisconsin, urged his fellow Republicans to back not the flexible 75 to 90 per cent in the President's plan but even the fixed 90 per cent carried over from the Truman administration but 100 per cent of parity. There is a bold bid for the farm vote.

Senator Milton Young, Republican of North Dakota, has been waging war against Benson and flexible supports ever since Benson's appointment.

The basic weakness in the position of these do-or-die advocates of rigid control is that they offer no solution for the farm surpluses that are piling up higher than Mount Everest. That has been the flaw in the whole effort beginning back in the early days of the New Deal to regulate the bounty of the American earth to insure the farmer a fair return for his labor.

If it had not been for World War II which burned up vast accumulations of cotton and grains, these stocks would have been a profound embarrassment to the market and to the administration in power. President Eisenhower calls for "insulation" of $2,500,000,000 of commodities presently held by the government so that market will not be depressed by this great weight hovering over it.

Presumably these surpluses will be given away overseas perhaps by CARE, the co-operative organization for distributing relief. It is hard to see what else could be done short of dumping it all in the sea.

The storage problem is becoming acute. The government holds nearly 265,000,000 pounds of butter which has cost more than $175,000,000. Spoilage is bound to damage this great hoard after it has been stored beyond a certain period.

Should the surpluses go on accumulating through the current year, they would overflow the warehouses. The total in inventory and under loan is valued at more than $4.5 billions. An overflow at harvest time on the eve of the November election would be a heavy liability.

One of the virtues of the fiercely scorned Brannan plan is that it would permit surpluses to be sold at the market price thereby giving consumers the benefit of abundance. But with the government paying the difference between the market price and a higher price guaranteed to the farmer, critics maintained its cost would be astronomical.

An anomaly in the President's farm proposal is that wool growers would get a Brannan plan. The President proposes that wool sell at the market price while the farmer would get a fixed price, the difference coming out of the treasury. This has been called the Brannan plan in sheep's clothing. If it is logical for wool growers, one may ask why it is not equally applicable to dairy and cotton farmers.

Cattfish Are Biting In Medicine Creek

By MONA B. PARKER

Henry Trysly, Dakota County Star editor, took note of a new masculine style trend in and around South Sioux City. Bow tie users are on the increase there, possibly "brought on" by Chamber Secretary Bill Geary who rolled into town two months ago with a bow tie the color of Grandma's washline." Mr. Geary explained for all interested recruits that it took him an entire afternoon to learn to tie "one of the things." First he'd tie a bow in his shoestring, then follow each step with his tie. Persistence won out until perfection was achieved.

Mr. Moore of the Fairbury Journal staff is not exactly averse to bow ties, rather practical about the whole thing. "I'm just puzzled about what I'd use to polish my specs, without the reliable four-in-hand. And a bow tie doesn't save nearly as many spots on the shirt."

The current siege of measles is now at an end at the Embree family home in Neligh, and the two weeks that the little girl spent with her nose against the window wistfully watching playmates were what her mother called "an endurance contest for everyone concerned." A fortune awaits anyone, Mrs. Embree believes, who would package two weeks worth of games, puzzles, and treats and label them "The Mumps Kit" or suitable designation, for quick sale to distraught mothers.

Reports to the Cambridge Clarion are that a goodly number of cattfish are currently being caught in Medicine Creek. "Ever hear of this in January?" marveled the astonished Clarion.

And the Hastings Tribune wonders "if spring can be far behind." A local golfer who had been taking advantage of the mild and dry weather remembered "how we used to paint our balls black, the easier to find them in the patches of snow over the course."

Geneva has no more control over the weather than any of the rest of us, but the people down there have a unique and what the Nebraska Signal considers a fairly accurate means of temperature forecasting.

The whole thing revolves around a certain bunch of crows who arrive each afternoon as punctually as Capistrano's swallows. With mild weather in the offing, they select deciduous trees for their night's lodging, but if a cold period is due, they hit for the evergreens, where the descending one ring of branches for each 10-degree drop in temperature. One old crow, especially, seems to be the weathervane for the group. He comes in first and sets the pattern. "He's the one with the blue eyes, his beak is a little longer and his wings are higher on his back than the others. He also indicates the wind direction for the night. If he faces northeast, the wind will be from the northeast and so around the compass. It's our guess that he has an astig-matism in the right eye and that position gives him maximum protection against the wind."

R. J. Sent of the Table Rock Argus one recent late night felt that perhaps the efforts of a country editor weren't all in vain. It was 1:30 a.m. and he was still hard at it for that day's publication when "in came J. C. Layden with hot coffee, rolls, and fruit for the hungry editor. Kind of made us feel that our all-night struggles don't go by unappreciated, and renewed our faith in the friendliness of people in a small community."

The Gering Courier carried a picture in its editorial columns of one "Sir Cedric Sorrowful"—not visiting British dignity, but a sturdy English bulldog whose countenance did little to belie his name. There were three reasons for the picture there—first they had promised to print it—second, he's the only pooch along O Street that doesn't bark at Editor Warren C. Wood when he's walking to work in the mornings—and third, he doesn't bark nights, either.

Stanley E. (E. for "Einstein") Samuelson was walking home from the Mirror-Sun office one noon when Lyons' 12 o'clock whistle began to blow. Just as it was fading, he heard Oakland's whistle signal the hour. As a matter of local pride, he assumed that Lyons' whistle was correct and that Oakland must be a half minute late in its time-recording. Then he began to toss about the remnants of his high school mathematics. With sound travelling 1,100 feet per second, and with 5,280 feet in a mile, and seven miles parting the two whistles—the two whistles actually blew at the same time, he calculated.

Eisenhower Farm Plan

Curtis, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: President Eisenhower's farm plan is his honest opinion of the solution for surpluses and a sound farm program. However, experience does not warrant his opinion. During Hoover's administration, wheat fell from $3 to 30 cents a bushel, and during that period surpluses continued to pile up. Then what result should we expect from Benson's sliding scale? The answer is clear. The price would be the bottom of the slide.

Farmers do not ask to be put in the most favored economic position. They ask only a reasonable equality. Industrial employment is falling off. Why? The agricultural income has dropped about 10 per cent during the past 15 months. This has affected industry and, as always, industry will suffer more than agriculture.

We do not believe that the head of the Farm Bureau represents a majority voice of agriculture and his stand is driving many from the Farm Bureau. We think the president is ill-advised in presenting his program and there is little chance for it in Congress. Better, he should do more to gain export markets, or tell us what to raise or let the land raise a fertilizing crop.

C. R. HERRICK

That Jones Family

Anselmo, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: We are often told that the reason most people are short of money is because they spend foolishly in an effort to "keep up with the Joneses." It is implied if they could learn to spend judiciously, we would need no pensions, social security, unemployment compensation or higher wages.

Now, it seems our congressmen want to show us exactly how it should be done—just pay a man all the money he can spend and then, of course, a good pension. He then can easily keep up with the Joneses, will have plenty of time for play, and can keep his mind off such things as dollars and cents. I suppose every normal person would want to do that if he were allowed to write his own paycheck, but so many of us are not allowed to do that. They tell us now that our congressmen find when they get to Washington, they have been misled in thinking they were getting good jobs. Their rent is higher, clothing must be better, they must entertain—and parties there are the main business and topic of conversation with hardly other business. They have moved the club rooms right up to Capitol Hill next door to the capitol so they needn't waste much time getting to their clubs. But still they are short of money, and soon $25,000 would not be enough. What we need is some way to educate people on how to cut down expenses. Where should we begin?

M. S. DAILY

Just 'Improvident'

Dunbar, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The method used by Gov. Crosby in releasing his tax assessment for publication is nothing more or less than a "grandstand" political play. After all, why not in just a simple, straight-forward way, without any fanfare, have ordered the Lincoln County assessor to release for publication a copy of his 1952 and 1953 tax assessments? It could have been as simple as that. Probably very few taxpayers are interested in the governor's home life and the sentiment behind the purchase of the diamond rings. They care only for their valuation for tax purposes. Sentiment is a fine thing in its place, but we can question its place in the "hard-boiled attitude laid down by the governor for the rest of us—"Get all your personal property on the tax rolls—or else!"

Actually, the only thing that could help the taxpayer set a value on his own property in the governor's tax release was the appraisal of the diamond rings by an expert. We do know now that a diamond ring set purchased a year ago with a value of $250 is worth only half as much ($125) today second-hand! Also that old gold in a class ring is worth probably $10. But doesn't the governor's class ring have diamonds in it? It looked as if it did on TV.

We could gain no worthwhile information as to the watches, bedroom furniture, or living-room furniture because there was no age given nor the price when purchased. And $20 for all else not listed, which could mean anything.

It might be considered smart politics by some for the governor to tell the people who elected him that he's been "improvident" in his affairs (Webster defines improvident as meaning "lacking foresight or thrift; wanting care to provide for the future; careless"). "Improvident"—now, that's a million-dollar word. When we who have earned our living by the sweat of our brow end up on old age assistance, we've been just plain shiftless "no gooders"—why not "improvident" for us also?

Crosby: Wagener 'Carpenter Disciple'

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer

State employees have been invited by the governor to meet at 10 a.m. Friday as he launches his "Campaign Honesty" with a plea that all workers paid from tax funds sign a pledge that they will list all of their property for taxation this year as an example to all citizens of the state.

Attacks made on his campaign by County Attorney Frederick Wagener were brushed off by the governor who explained, "It is quite apparent that Terry Carpenter has picked up a disciple."

Turning serious, the governor had words of praise for the Lancaster County board and Assessor Arthur Davis for ap-

Wagener: Crosby's Remark Is Attempt To Divert Issue

"It's another attempt (by Gov. Robert Crosby) to divert the issue," said Lancaster County Attorney Frederick Wagener upon learning of the governor's remark to the press that "Terry Carpenter has picked up a disciple (Wagener)."

Wagener had earlier assailed the "force and pressure" methods he said were used to advance "Operation Honesty," the label Gov. Crosby has given to his campaign for better personal property assessment schedules.

"It's not my intention to become involved with personalities," said Wagener. "I'm fond of Bob Crosby personally, but that does not mean I have to embrace everything he advo-

Slagle Files For State Treasurer

William R. Slagle of Lincoln filed with the secretary of state Thursday as a candidate for the Republican nomination for state treasurer. He has been employed for several years as an auditor in the office of State Auditor Ray Johnson. Slagle has been active in the organization of Young Republicans.

Frank Heintze, present state treasurer, is ineligible under the law to be a candidate to succeed himself after serving two terms. This is the first filing for the position.

Others being prominently mentioned as possible candidates are Frank Ullstrom of Lincoln, present deputy in the office, Sen. Arthur Carmody of Trenton and Carl G. Swanson of Omaha who resigned as state treasurer to become secretary of the Nebraska Bankers Association. He recently resigned the bankers post and is now vacationing in the South.

Mrs. Griffith, 77, Los Angeles, Dies; Former Resident

Mrs. Maud F. Griffith, 77, of Los Angeles, formerly of Seward and Lincoln, died Tuesday in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Griffith was graduated from Seward High School and attended the University of Nebraska.

She was the daughter of George F. Burkett, formerly a principal at Seward and Lancaster County superintendent of schools.

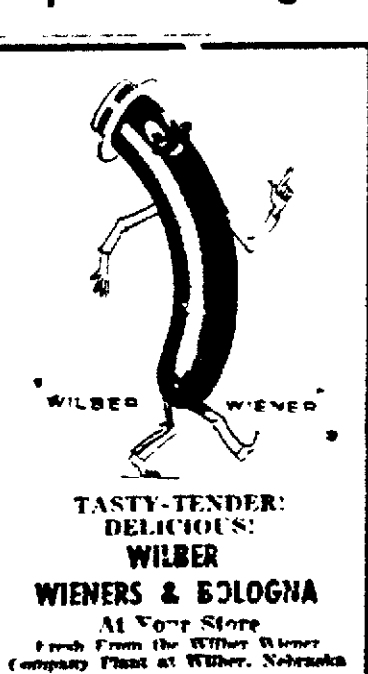

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Florence Flannigan, and a brother, Ralph Burkett, both of Lincoln.

parently being the first county in the state to explain why publicly paid workers should give assurance to other citizens that they are carrying their share of the tax load.

"The whole idea is to get voluntary compliance with the tax laws," the governor said. "The thinking that led to 'Operation Honesty' was to benefit the majority who file conscientious returns. They are now carrying the majority of the tax load."

Need Assurance

The governor explained that in his opinion the majority of those not now filing adequate returns would do so if assured that their neighbor was doing likewise. For those who persist in evading listing all property, Gov. Crosby said the law provides adequate enforcement tools.

"I'm not going to spy on my neighbors," the governor said. "I don't expect others to snoop on their neighbors. Enforcement will come from officers charged with that duty."

The governor then turned to the statutes and read the duties of assessors and other county officers. He said that if assessors had some assurance of public support he believed they would do a much better job. He explained that at present some assessors are of the opinion that citizens do not want the law enforced.

The governor said that he expected the 1955 Legislature would provide some "improved tools" for administering taxation laws. He expressed "encouragement" over the success of his efforts and said it was largely a continuation of efforts of the 1947 Legislature, while he was lieutenant-governor, when they abolished the precinct assessor in the belief that citizens would fairly make their own assessment schedules.

Crosby said his mail indicates communities and neighborhoods are agreeing that all will file proper returns this year. He expressed pleasure at the fact 100 out of about 150 Lancaster County employees attended voluntarily a meeting held after they had completed their day's work.

The governor passed out copies of telegrams and letters he has received from the entire Nebraska delegation in Congress expressing best wishes for the campaign. Typical were the remarks of Sen. Dwight Griswold, who said:

"Congratulations on the courage and initiative you have shown in pushing forward with Operation Honesty. You deserve fullest public support to assure a success which will permanently benefit all Nebraskans."

The governor likened his campaign to one for traffic safety or the Community Chest. He explained that people use window or car stickers then and feathers or buttons in their lapels.

"It has been suggested," the governor continued, "that there was some kind of compulsion about wearing Operation Honesty badges and signing pledges. At no time have I said anybody has to." Failure to wear the badge is no indication a person will file a dishonest return, he pointed out.

County Assessor Night Work OK'd

Night work in the office of Lancaster County Assessor Arthur Davis has been authorized by the Board of Commissioners.

Davis explained that his office wanted to get on with the preparation of real estate assessment record books in view of the near completion of the Wilkens and Associates' county-wide appraisal.

But motor vehicle business has all but swamped the office, he explained to the commissioners.

They approved night work of $1.25 an hour as needed during January and February.

Sheep Feeding Is Down 6 Pct.

There was an estimated 555,000 head of sheep and lambs on feed in Nebraska Jan. 1, down 6 per cent from a year earlier, the State and Federal Crop Reporting Service said Thursday.

But just the same about 14 per cent of the nation's sheep on feed are in Nebraska and this is the fourth straight year the state has led the nation in number of sheep and lambs on feed at the start of a year.

In shipments of sheep and lambs in September-December totaled 661,000 head as against 725,000 the year before.

Weather conditions during the fall were favorable for rapid gains and a relatively larger percentage of inshipments were marketed prior to Jan. 1. The upper North Platte Valley is the leading sheep feeding area within the state although it has fewer numbers than a year earlier.

Flexible Farm Price Program Applauded

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—The administration's proposed flexible farm price support plan was applauded Wednesday by delegates to the 57th annual convention of the American National Cattlemen's Ass'n.

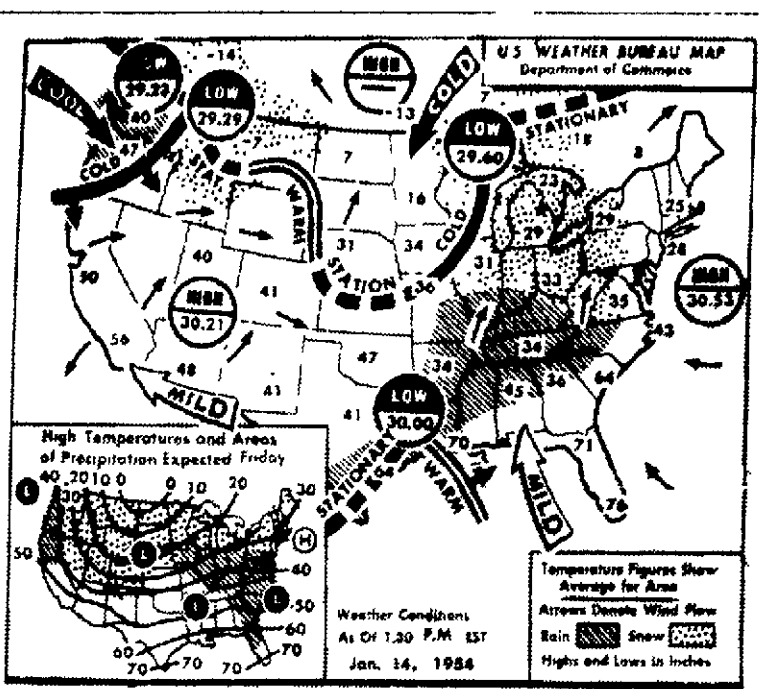

The program was outlined by Secretary of Agriculture Benson. He said variable price supports "promote shifts in production and supply to meet changes in demand—they encourage more production when more is needed and they put on the brakes when supplies are burdensome."

His 2,500 listeners interrupted Benson seven times with applause as he told them "rigid price supports were never intended for peacetime use" and that the only thing price support "has proved is that it does not have the answer to agriculture's problems in the 1950's."

The cattlemen's organization has expressed opposition to price supports and controls for livestock.

The speaker Thursday, N. K. Carnes, general manager of the Central Livestock Association, Inc., St. Paul, Minn., said leaders in the livestock and meat industry in this country do not believe that direct price supports should be applied to live animals. "They know very well, from past experience, that direct government price supports of live animals are not practical and Carnes said direct price supports would "require a tremendous army of government employees to administer... would necessitate large appropriations by Congress of the taxpayers' money... would ultimately lead to government control and

Many Attend Services For Chris Abbott

HYANNIS, Neb. (AP)—People didn't realize how big a man he was until after he was gone.

Those words from a Hyannis rancher about summed up the general feeling of ranchers and townspeople around the Sandhills community of 490 as they attended the funeral Thursday afternoon for Chris J. Abbott.

Abbott, noted Hyannis rancher and banker, was killed in an airplane crash near Shreveport, La., Sunday. He was 64, had widespread business interests in addition to being a leading livestock producer and president of banks in Alliance, Mullen, Wood Lake, Hyannis and Chadron.

He was also reputedly the wealthiest man in Nebraska.

Albert A. Held, executive vice president of the National Bank of Commerce of Lincoln described Abbott as "an aggressive, honest to God citizen."

9-Car Special Train Held was one of about 60 business associates and friends who arrived here Thursday on a nine-car special train. They included bank presidents, airline officials, leading men in both business and agriculture from points as scattered as Washington, Lincoln, Omaha and Chicago.

Friends of the family were running a shuttle service between the railroad siding and the Abbott home, a distance of about 1 1/2 miles.

Short services had been held in Omaha Tuesday and a special car carrying Abbott's body, his widow and son, Arthur, arrived here late Wednesday.

Services were held at 2:30 p.m. at the Congregational Church. Burial was in the Hyannis cemetery. The Revs. E. G. Larsen, Bingham, and H. E. Petersen, pastor of the Hyannis church, were in charge of the services.

Half-Fare Rates For Shoppers Brings Investigation Request

Six eastern Nebraska Chambers of Commerce have voiced opposition to the experimental half-fare rates to Omaha for women shoppers during January and February.

C. W. Motter, manager of the Fremont Chamber, said they have gone on record as "violently opposed" to the action of the State Railway Commission in granting the experimental rates. Motter said they had filed a protest with the commission stating that the rates were discriminatory, that they were creating irreparable damage to business in the towns affected and probably were not in keeping with the "letter of the law."

Motter said the Fremont Chamber believes granting of the rates was illegal since a public hearing was not held and no record was published of the vote of the commission members.

The Fremont group has notified other Chambers of Commerce in the northeastern area asking them to contact their state senators and request an investigation of the lack of hearings, Motter said.

James R. Hanson, Chamber president; Paul Chisholm, chairman of the retailers committee of 110 members, and Fremont Mayor Milton C. Ebers are all on record as opposed to the rate decrease, Motter said.

"Very Discriminatory" The Columbus Chamber of Commerce has also filed a protest with the Railway Commission, secretary-manager Doane L. Fessenden said Thursday. The Columbus Chamber feels that the rates are "very discriminatory," he said. The board was expected to take further action in the matter, he said. "We are concerned over the situation," Arnold Magnuson, manager of the Falls City Chamber, said Magnuson said the commission probably would write the commission expressing their opposition. The matter will be taken up by the Chamber board at its meeting next week, he said.

Officials of the Grand Island Chamber of Commerce said they thought the half-fare plan was "very unfavorable." However, Magnuson said they were not "unduly alarmed" since they did not think the half-fare rate would be enough of an inducement for many Grand Island persons to leave their own trade area.

Thompson and Ashley Conger, retiring president, said the Grand Island Chamber would go along with any protests filed by other groups with Railway Commission.

Earl Hamilton, president of the Norfolk Chamber, and Larry Owen, manager of the Falls City Chamber, both stated their opposition to the plan. They said that if the plan is to be permitted it should allow the half-fare rates to go "both ways" giving their cities the same advantages as Omaha. The problem will be discussed at Chamber meetings in both cities next week.

Miltzer Believes College Research Hampered By Segmentation

"In the past 30 to 40 years American universities have tended to split into self-governing units."

These were the words of W. E. Miltzer, dean of the University of Nebraska College of Arts and Science, as he spoke to the conference of Nebraska Agricultural Experiment Station workers Thursday.

He went on to say that the larger the university the more such splitting process has taken place. This process has been governed by economic and professional interests.

A program of research as it must be carried on today is hampered by the segmentation of a university into more or less independent units, Miltzer continued.

'Keen' Mind Needed

Earlier Dr. Marvel L. Baker, associate director of Experiment Stations at the University, told the workers of the importance of a keen, alert, curious, informed mind in research work. He said the distinction between "pure" and "applied" research should not bother Experiment Station workers.

"Pasteur said there are not two forms of science—pure and applied—but only science and the application of science," he said. "We need only concern ourselves that what we do is research."

Dean W. V. Lambert spoke to the conference on public rela-

First Presbyterian Over-Subscribes Budget Of $79,421

Members of the First Presbyterian Church over-subscribed the largest budget in the church's history—$79,421.80—according to an announcement made at the annual meeting. The congregation heard reports reviewing one of the best years in its long history.

The church, which is entering 1954 with the largest membership in its history, numbers 2,482 members.

First Presbyterian accepted 269 new members during 1953, a net gain of 134 members and noted a 14 per cent increase in regular church attendance.

Enrolled in church school classes are 912 children and regular attendance in 1953 increased 21 per cent over the 1952 figure.

Committee Lauded

Dr. C. Vin White, pastor of the church, reported the new youth and education and activities building is being used to its capacity.

Members of the building fund committee, who have completed their work, were praised for their efforts and the committee disbanded by Dr. White.

Mrs. J. W. Kinsinger served as chairman of the committee, which also included Robert A.

Wekesser, secretary, Merlin Springer, treasurer, and the following:

Clarence E. Swanson Miss Rose Carson
Kurt O. Lindo Edward A. Fritsch
Wallace B. Roberts Verner M. Meyer
Allard L. Folsom Mrs. E. W. Orme
Mrs. L. J. Howard Clyde C. Noyes
Haydon D. Hudes

A highly successful first year was reported by Chairman E. A. Fritsch of the First Presbyterian Church Foundation.

Members of the official boards were also named by the congregation at the meeting.

Dr. White is entering his sixth year as pastor of First Presbyterian Church.

Lincoln's Retail Sales Climb Reverses State Decline Trend

A University of Nebraska business survey bulletin sees October as the month that may have possibly marked the start of a real downturn in Nebraska business, "with both the dollar volume and the physical volume below a year ago."

Nebraska's dollar volume dropped 4.4 per cent and physical volume, 1.2 per cent.

However, "Business in Nebraska," prepared by the College of Business Administration's Department of Business Research, cautioned that these indications may be false.

"In the first place business has been up and down all year, up one month and down the next."

"Another sign that the disturbance is not yet fundamental is the status of employment. Neither manufacturing employment nor other employment is yet down to the level of a year ago."

"Cash farm marketings are also up from last year, but this is often a result of distress selling at lower prices, and thus cannot be relied upon so definitely."

The Bulletin added: "Retail sales in November were not among the optimistic indicators. Down almost five per cent from last year, and almost four per cent from October, they showed definite weakness. The worst part of it is the fact that almost all lines of retail sales dropped."

Here are the city-by-city indexes of retail sales after being adjusted for seasonal changes:

MISS ARTIE ROSE WESTCOTT

Plans June Wedding

The engagement of Miss Artie Rose Westcott to Robert Eugene Hobbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. John I. Hobbs of Lincoln, is announced this morning by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Westcott of Holdrege.

The wedding will take place in June.

Miss Westcott is a graduate of the University of Nebraska where she is a member of Chi Omega sorority. Mortar Board, honor society for senior women; Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honorary, and Gamma Alpha Chi, advertising honorary. She now is a member of the high school faculty at Kramer.

Mr. Hobbs is a student in the University of Nebraska college of law, and is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, and Phi Delta Phi, legal fraternity.

The Brides' Book Says:

Miss Rita Nixon, whose marriage to Larry Treadwell will be solemnized on Saturday evening, Jan. 16, was the guest of honor last Monday evening when Miss Donna Spomer entertained at her home. Twelve guests were invited for a combined miscellaneous and grocery shower, and an informal evening of games.

Miss Nixon and her fiancé will be complimented this evening when the bride-elect's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan E. Jones will be host and hostess at a pre-nuptial buffet dinner at their home following the wedding rehearsal. The guests list will include the members of the families and of the bridal party.

Another January bride-elect is Miss Kathleen Heng, whose marriage to Lyman Botcher will take place on Saturday evening, Jan. 23, at Paul.

Complimenting Miss Heng on Wednesday evening was Mrs. Robert Hartshorn, who entertained a group of guests at a dessert supper and a bridal shower at her home.

And this morning Miss Heng is announcing the members of the wedding party which includes Miss Joan Volkmer of Talmage as the maid of honor, and Miss Maxine Heiser of Dunbar, as bridesmaid.

Mr. Botcher will have Robert Neil of Tecumseh as his best man, and the ushers will be Duane Heng of Dunbar, cousin of the bride, and Melvin Kreifels.

Miss Fon McMahan, whose engagement to James Smiley was announced this morning, and who will be married Satur-

DID A lot of verbal meandering around town this morning and came up with some interesting facts plus numerous rumors of future events—The future will take care of itself—eventually—and right at the moment we are much more concerned about the current news.

JUST learned that Mr. and Mrs. George L. Peltier have sold their home at 1990 C to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Russell who, since selling their former home on So. 24th to the Kenneth Andersons last summer, have been residing at 3131 South Street.

The Peltiers, we hear, are moving away from Lincoln—Very early in February they plan to move to Wisconsin Rapids, Wis.—the date of the move dependent, of course, upon available housing—where Mr. Peltier will be associated with the Cranberry growers Association as a consultant.

YW Board Of Directors

The monthly meeting of the Lincoln YWCA board of directors was held Thursday morning with Mrs. O. L. Webb presiding.

Plans for the YW annual meeting, to be held Monday, Feb. 8, were announced by Mrs. J. G. Vaughan, who submitted the meeting agenda for approval.

The board members named Mrs. Chauncey Smith, Mrs. George Knight and Mrs. C. M. Duff to the nominating committee to select a slate of candidates for the board, to be elected at the February meeting, after which Mrs. Smith paid tribute to the board members whose terms as directors expire. The outgoing members of the board are Mrs. Harold Shelley, Mrs. Jack Devoe, Mrs. S. J. Fieselman and Mrs. Grey R. Jewett.

The board also approved a plan submitted by Mrs. C. B. Remington, to organize a young adult council to include representatives from all YW young adult departments, and a report on the spring term of YW craft classes was made by Mrs. Smith, crafts chairman.

Fidelia Lyceum

A chalk talk, "Hidden Happiness," was given by Glen I. Anderson, director of the Nebraska school retirement system, at the Tuesday evening meeting of Fidelia Lyceum, which followed a dinner at the YWCA.

Mrs. C. M. Stewart, president, conducted the meeting and presented, "A Recipe For A Happy New Year."

Table decorations in the winter motif were under the direction of Miss Martha Maske and Mrs. Paul Burk-lund, hostesses for the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Peltier will be accompanied to Wisconsin by their daughter, Mrs. Sally Osborn, and her two sons, Chuck and John.

TODAY is the day that Dr. and Mrs. Duane Willander and their son and daughter, Billy and Susie, arrive from San Diego. Mrs. Willander and the children will remain in Lincoln for 10 days or two weeks as the guests of Mrs.

Willander's mother, Mrs. E. H. Luikart, but Dr. Willander will linger in Lincoln only briefly before going on to Chicago where he will attend a meeting of orthopedic surgeons, and where he will be joined later by Mrs. Willander and the children for a visit with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Willander of Oak Park, Ill., before returning to the West Coast.

Mrs. Willander will be remembered as the former Onalee Hogrefe.

LEAVING on Thursday morning to return to their home in Potosi, Mo., after spending the holidays in Lincoln were Mr. and Mrs. A. Maxwell Klum. During their stay here they were the guests of Mrs. Klum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lawrence.

THE WAY MY FAMILY LIKES IT

It was almost like pulling teeth to persuade Mrs. J. Taylor Greer to part with her notorious banana bread . . . not because she is the prima donna type, but because, she shamefully admits, it is about as difficult as making toast, and she is embarrassed at the thought of seeing it in print. The affinity for this bread is not confined to her husband and discriminating daughter, Penny, for everyone who partakes of afternoon tea at the Greer's always leaves with the receipt.

Banana Bread

Beat 1 egg slightly. Add 1 c. sugar and 1/4 c. melted butter. Sift together 1 1/2 c. flour, 1 t. soda, 1 t. salt. Combine with 3 mashed bananas and the first mixture. Bake in a small greased loaf pan, in a moderate oven, (350 degrees), for about 1 hour.

Insurance Group Dinner-Meeting

Mrs. Beulah Julian, president, conducted the regular meeting of the Insurance Woman of Lincoln, held Thursday evening following a 6 o'clock dinner at the YWCA.

The program included music by Walter Carlson, violinist, and in charge of arrangements for the evening was Miss Ann Gordon.

MRS. DOUGLAS LINDAHL

Spreading arrangements of pine and cedar boughs and large yellow chrysanthemums appointed the chancel of Zion Lutheran Church at Creighton for the marriage of Miss Margie Dwinell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dwinell of Venus, and Douglas Lindahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindahl of Tilden, which took place Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 29. The double ring ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Adolph Lillich.

As the chancel candles were lighted by Mrs. Donald Hall of Tilden and Miss Clara Vican of Lincoln, wearing white satin choir robes, a prelude of organ music was presented by Mrs. Fred Olson of Seward. Mrs. Olson also played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Hall, who sang "Because," and Dr. Jack James, who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. A. L. Young of Lincoln was her sister's matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Doris Dwinell and Miss Vera Jean Dwinell, also sisters of the bride. The honor attendant, wearing a frock in the copper tone, and the bridesmaids, in coral and mint green, were costumed identically in tulle over satin.

For her wedding, the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over satin. A tiny lace collar accented the illusion yoke which was framed in the off-shoulder mode by medallions of lace embroidered with pearls. Long fitted sleeves completed the bodice beneath which the skirt was caught into fullness and extended into a train. Her lace-edged veil of illusion was held by a tiara of lace and pearls, and she carried a crescent bouquet of red roses.

Gerald Lindahl of Lincoln served his cousin as best man, and seating the guests were Bud Edwards of Orchard, Donald Hall and Del Rees of Tilden, and A. L. Young.

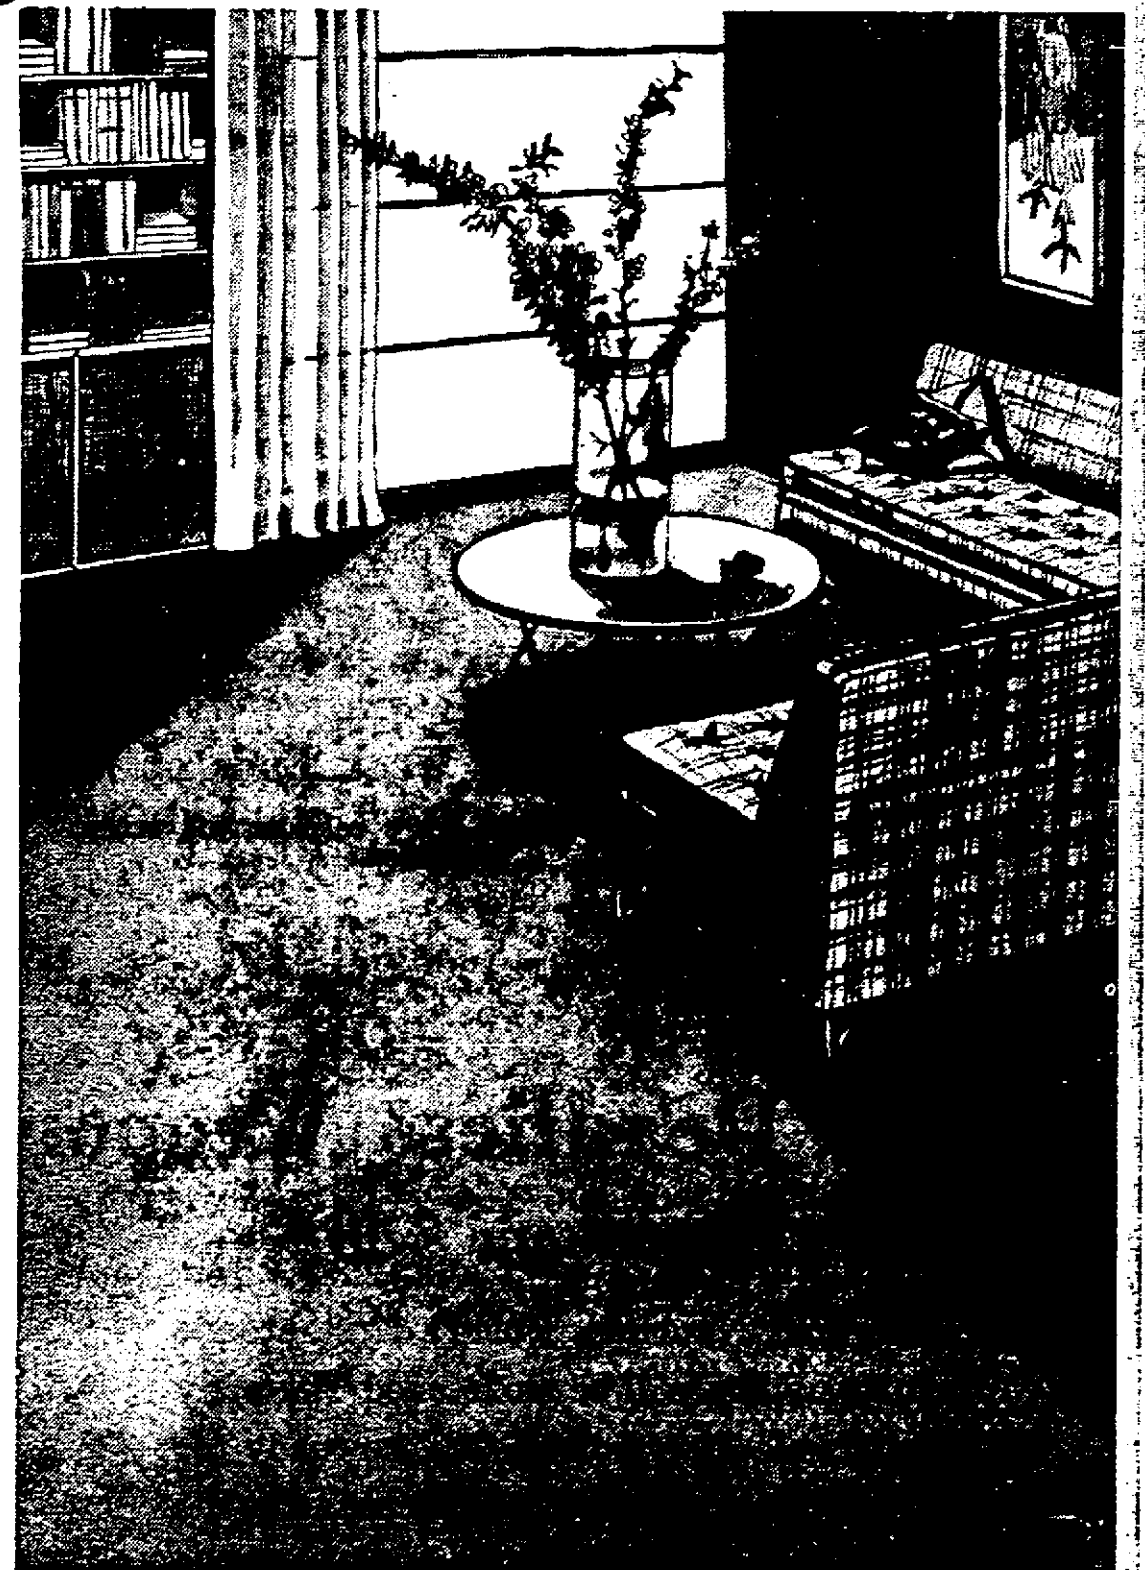

Upon their return from a wedding trip to Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Lindahl will reside in Tilden. A graduate of the University of Nebraska college of pharmacy, Mr. Lindahl served two years with the Navy.

The bride formerly was employed in Lincoln and has taught at rural schools in the state.

Saddler Is Easy Choice Over Bossio

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Featherweight Champ Sandy Saddler, due to get out of the Army before spring, makes his first start in almost two years tonight against little Billy Bossio at St. Nicholas Arena.

It will be a "Mutt and Jeff" match between the lanky 5-foot-7 champion and 5-foot-1 Bossio with no title at stake. Saddler expects to weigh about 131 pounds, six over the feather limit. There is practically no betting with Saddler at least 3½ to 1.

The 10-round match, starting at 9 p.m. (EST) will be given the usual Friday network treatment on radio (ABC) and TV (NBC). With Madison Square Garden given over to an ice show, the International Boxing Club has shifted operations to the old St. Nick's.

Saddler, stationed in Germany until he came home on leave, hasn't fought since March 17, 1952 when he knocked out Tommy Collins in Boston. That was a year before Jimmy Carter did his job on Tommy.

It has been well over two years since Saddler last defended his title against Willie Pep. In fact, he never defended it against anybody else. After Sandy made his first start in his corner, Sept. 26, 1951, his record was spotty. The champ lost four title bouts to Paddy DeMarco, George Araujo and Armando Savoie before he took care of Collins in his finale.

Boxing men will be watching Saddler carefully to see how much he has gone back, if any. Bertie Briscoe, his trainer, said Saddler easily could have made 126 pounds with a little extra work. The champ is now 127.

Bossio, 25, is a willing little fellow with a 40-12-3 record for 55 fights as a pro since he returned from the 1948 Olympics. A victory and a draw in two Washington bouts with Gene Smith last fall were his best efforts of '53 when he won four lost two and drew one. He weighs anywhere from 124 to 127½.

In case you have forgotten, Saddler has a terrific knockout record of 90 among 129 victories. In 143 fights since he started in 1944 he has a 129-12-2 career mark. He was stopped only once, in one of his first fights by Jack Leslie in 1944 but was on the floor in the Collins bout.

Terps Slate Rough Opener

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—Maryland's elected national intercollegiate football champions of 1953 will open their 1954 schedule the hard way and close it on the easy grade.

The 10-game schedule announced Thursday opens at Kentucky on Sept. 18 and then after a week off sends Maryland out to Los Angeles for a Friday night game, Oct. 1, with UCLA.

Maryland's last four games are at home with North Carolina State, Clemson, Wake Forest, North Carolina, Miami and South Carolina will be played in between.

Kentucky, UCLA, North Carolina State and Wake Forest are 1954 replacements for Washington & Lee, Georgia, Mississippi, and Alabama of last season.

The last game with Missouri offers a possibility of making the Orange Bowl situation tickle could be the logical choice—Kali. Maryland and Missouri could be the logical choices for the Miami Bowl when they meet.

The bowl has a contract to take representatives of Maryland's Atlantic Coast Conference and Missouri's Big Seven. The Big Seven has a rule that the same team can't go two years in a row which eliminates Oklahoma. 7-0 conquerors of Maryland in this year's bowl. Missouri could finish runner up in the conference and qualify for the bowl.

The Atlantic Coast Conference has no rule which would ban Maryland from returning to Miami.

Ez's Handlers Ready To Talk Over Title Go

CHICAGO (AP)—The handlers of former heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles will meet with International Boxing Club President Jim Norris and Al Weill, manager of Champion Rocky Marciano, in New York next week to discuss a title bout between Marciano and Charles.

Charles Wednesday night knocked out hard-hitting Bob Satterfield of Chicago in the second round of a free-swinging bout at the Chicago Stadium. The crashing left that flattened Satterfield presumably shot 32-year-old Charles into a June meeting with Marciano.

Truman Gibson, IBC secretary, said Charles' co-managers, Jake Mintz and Tom Tannas, would await the huddle with Norris and Weill before planning any future bouts for Charles.

"We'd like to keep busy," said Tannas. "Charles has never avoided any opponent. Unless Weill and Norris want us to mark time until Charles might fight Marciano, we'd like to box anybody. That includes Dan Bucceroni, Clarence Henry or Nino Valdes."

Charles picked up a $8,664.60 check for his four minutes work against Satterfield. That includes $4,664.60 from his 35 per cent of a net gate of $11,327.64, plus $4,000 from television.

Satterfield, knocked out for the 10th time in 15 defeats, collected $6,665.49 on a 20 per cent share and $4,000 from TV. Asked what happened in the nationally-televised bout, Satterfield quipped:

"Well, it was nighttime, and like any other man, I took off my clothes, put on my bathrobe, and I was asleep in four minutes."

Former Champion Joe Louis, after watching Charles belt out Satterfield, said Ez could not fight Marciano the same way.

"Charles will have to stay away from Marciano to have a chance to regain the title," Louis said.

Charles, however, disagreed. "I'll fight Marciano the same way I fought Coley Wallace (whom he stopped Dec. 16) and Satterfield," said Charles. "You've got to crowd those slugs and try to keep inside their long swings. I think I'm punching harder than ever and can handle myself at close range with Rocky."

Cannamela Signed

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns have signed Pat Cannamela, a former University of Southern California line-backer, and Wallace Kosinski, who played quarterback for Hiram (Ohio) College in 1952.

Both players are 22 and are now in military service, but expect release in time to join the Browns' training camp next August.

Gavilan, although he will be spotting Olson perhaps eight pounds, will have considerable support. He's a busy guy in there, a flurry of punches who can take a healthy wallop and keep coming on for more.

It took a lot of convincing, but we've finally reached the point where we consider Olson a pretty fair fist fighter; one who can take care of himself under practically all circumstances.

So the bout has its intriguing angles, including the possibility that the second successive welterweight champion has the chance to move up and take over the middleweight throne. Good as the odds are, though, he won't be the favorite Ray Robinson was when he made an ex-champion out of Jake LaMotta.

Reds Scoff At 'Perfidy' Demands

... Charge Stands

PANMUNJOM (Friday) — (INS) — The Allies told the Communists today that they must retract their charge of perfidy against the United States if they want to resume negotiations for a Korea peace conference, but the Reds again refused to back down.

Allied and Communist liaison officers met at Panmunjom at 11 a.m. for a second day of arguments and wound up still in apparent deadlock on the issue.

Allied liaison secretary Edward Martin insisted point blank that before the stage could be set for a renewal of the disrupted preliminary peace talks the Communists must first "correct the past record" of diplomatic negotiations.

Demand Ignored

The record contains the Red accusation of perfidy in connection with President Syngman Rhee's release of 27,000 anti-Communist war prisoners in South Korea last June.

Communist delegate Ju Mun Sun, a North Korean, ignored Martin's demand by repeating the Communist contention that only the date for resuming the negotiations need concern the liaison officers.

He also rejected Martin's suggestion that liaison talks go into "executive" of secret session. Martin demanded that the perfidy charge be "corrected" in the record before a "constructive atmosphere" can be found to resume the talks that U. S. Envoy Arthur H. Dean broke off last December 12.

Elected New Head Of Lutheran Men

David H. Bauer was elected president of the Lutheran Men of Lincoln at the monthly dinner meeting at YWCA. He succeeds Gilbert Schoenfeld.

Other new officers are H. A. Stearns, vice president; George Coulter, recording secretary, and Chester Abrahamson, treasurer.

Fluoridation Tests Set In 19 Towns

School children in 19 Nebraska towns will be examined to determine effects on teeth of natural fluoride in drinking water.

Dr. H. W. Heinz, state dental health director, will begin the survey in about a week and hopes to have it completed by May 1.

Dr. George Gillooley of the U.S. Public Health Service at Kansas City, Mo., is working with Dr. Heinz on the program. Similar studies have been made in several other states.

Under 14

Only children under 14 who have lived all their lives in the same community will be examined.

Cities to be included are divided into three groups according to the amount of fluoride in their water supplies.

Towns with less than .3 of one part fluoride per million parts water are York, Plattsmouth, Holdrege, Wayne, Falls City, Seward, Wahoo, Schuyler and Crete.

Nine other towns to be studied have more than .8 parts fluoride in their water. They are Alliance, Benkelman, Oakland, Trenton, Stratton, Wauwata, Indianola, Arapahoe and Haigler.

Lincoln Not Included

Omaha, with more fluoride than towns in the first group and less than those in the second, is the only city to represent the middle group in the study.

Lincoln is not included in the survey.

Neither are Nebraska City, Beatrice, Fairbury and Superior, the only towns in the state which have equipment to add fluoride to city water.

Since fluoride has been added to the water in those towns for only about a year, its effects could not be determined with certainty.

Farm Credit Loans Decline By $200,000

The Lincoln Production Credit Association reported Thursday that loans at the end of the year were $200,000 less than a year ago. The 1953 figure was $1,500,000.

Association Secretary Joseph P. Barta made the report at the all-day annual meeting of the association at the Lincoln Hotel. Lt. Gov. Charles J. Warner presided. Three hundred members attended the 20th anniversary luncheon held in connection with the meeting.

Barta attributed the drop to the decline in cattle values, with the resultant effect on credit requirements. However, Barta announced the usual 4 per cent dividend plus a refund of nearly one-half per cent of accrued interest on loans made during the year, and pointed to the association's accumulation of $159,500 in government bonds.

The Lincoln association serves York, Fillmore, Saline, Lancaster, Seward and Otoe Counties.

Fulton Want, chief of credit for the National Farm Credit Administration of Washington, congratulated the association for its 20 years of successful operation, noting that such examples demonstrated the need and usefulness of co-operative farm credit.

Want praised the national farm program decentralization policy.

"Production credit associations are able to go it alone and need no government subsidies or tight direction," he said, adding that "decentralization has given us our agency outside the Agriculture Department and given us a representative voice on national policy making level."

Other speakers were Prof. L. W. Hurlbut, chairman of the University of Nebraska Department of Agricultural Engineering, and Association Directors R. L. Kaliff of York and B. H. Busboom of Crete.

R. L. Kaliff, York, was re-elected to the board of directors from York County for a three year term, and Everett Clark, Unadilla, was elected for three years for Otoe County, succeeding J. C. McCarthy.

Swift's Brown 'N Serve Sausage

Infra-Red Cooked

to bring you 3 amazing advantages!

1. BETTER TO EAT—You've never tasted sausage this fresh before! Rapid infra-red cooking from the inside out captures and holds peak goodness. Swift cooks the meat so it stays fresh, and the flavor always tastes as fresh when you serve it as when it left Swift's special ovens.

2. QUICKER—JUST HEAT—Swift's Brown 'N Serve is ready to eat in 3 minutes! Heats in just the time it takes to soft-boil an egg. (Ordinary sausage takes 23 to 30 minutes in the skillet.) And infra-red cooking leaves just the right amount of fat and moisture—you get more delicious, savory links.

3. CHEAPER—MORE MEAT—Ordinary sausage shrinks about half in cooking. You buy a pound, but eat only half a pound. The rest turns to grease. Swift's Brown 'N Serve is infra-red cooked to avoid shrinkage. Waste fat is removed. You eat all you buy!

U.N. Has 'Firm' Orders To Free 22,000 Anti-Red POWs Jan. 22

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
WASHINGTON (INS) — The United Nations military command was under "absolutely firm" orders Thursday night to release as civilians at midnight (Korean time) Jan. 22 the 22,000 Chinese and North Korean prisoners of war who have refused to return to Communist control. The United States, which dictates U.N. military decisions in Korea, is adhering to the plan despite all protests from Red China, Communist North Korea and India, whose troops have custody of the Korean War prisoners declining repatriation. An authoritative U.S. spokesman told International News Service: "The United States and South Korea have adopted a formula for release of all prisoners of war, who refuse repatriation, on Friday, Jan. 22, Korean time. This is the policy of the United States. It is absolutely firm. There will be no change." The U.S. views the statement of Indian General K. S. Thimayya that it would violate the Korean armistice terms to liberate the prisoners in civilian status as a "mere sop" to the Chinese Communists. The White House, the Pentagon and the State Department are convinced that the liberation of the 22,000 POWs refusing to return to Communism will not ignite a threat of new hostilities in Korea. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, Army chief of staff, told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that there is no evidence of any intention on the part of the Chinese or North Korean Reds to renew hostilities.

India Sees Violation
PANMUNJOM (Friday) — India decided Thursday on its own to start turning back nearly 23,000 disputed prisoners to their captors Jan. 20 — three days ahead of the deadline—and said if either side freed them it would violate the armistice. In Washington, the U.S. Army chief of staff, Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway told a Senate Committee "I would think that serious consequences could flow from such an action on the part of custodial forces of India—a premature release."

India Plan Feared
WASHINGTON (INS) — Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway warned Thursday that Indian Gen. K. S. Thimayya's decision to return Korean War prisoners to their captors next week may have "serious consequences" and expressed concern about Communist reaction. Thimayya asserted he would return the captives three days before the slated release date, as prisoners and not as civilians, because he believed this to be "the only correct and lawful and peaceful course open."

House Has Its First GOP-Demo Row

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 1954 "honeymoon" between House Republicans and Democrats came to an abrupt end Thursday.

The first flareup of partisan tempers broke out and seemed headed for a good-sized conflagration until the veteran minority leader, Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.), cooled it off.

Not since the session opened on Jan. 6 had there been any display of temper in the House — a strange situation in a congressional election year.

Rep. Karsten (D-Mo) started the eruption with an observation that the Republican administration, which he said had promised to balance the budget, finished its first full year of office on Dec. 31 with the national debt nine billion dollars higher than a year earlier.

"Old Obligations"

Karsten said he wondered when the GOP would start keeping its campaign promises.

Rep. H. O. Hays (R-Mich.) leaped to his feet and retorted that the Republicans were saddled with "old obligations" incurred by the Democrats but nonetheless payable.

"What do you want us to do, repudiate them?" Hays asked.

Rep. Hays (D-O) put in that the Eisenhower administration had seen fit to cancel some contract obligations, mentioning the Chrysler Corp. and American Locomotive as among those that had lost out.

But he didn't recall that General Motors had lost any contracts, Hays said, without mentioning that Secretary of Defense Charles Wilson formerly headed General Motors.

Fakehood Fight

Rep. Curtis (R-Mo) accused Hays of having made an "untrue" charge of favoritism. Hays promptly made the point of order that Curtis was violating (ON THE STANDARD SIZE SCREEN)

Heave A Sigh For New Jersey; She Lost Miss Liberty To 'Bully' N.Y.

NEW YORK (AP) — Ere you pass the Statue of Liberty again, stranger, heave a sigh for the feeble little colony known as New Jersey. The statue would have been hers, it seems, but for that old bully, New York.

The famed Miss Liberty points her lamp aloft 305 feet above Bedloe's Island, a little patch of land in the harbor southwest of New York.

State Supreme Court Justice Thomas L. J. Corcoran, citing a 125 year dispute over the island, nevertheless ruled Thursday: "Bedloe's Island is within the territorial boundaries of the city and state of New York."

Tax Issue

The touchy question was raised anew last December by Mrs. Evelyn Hill, who runs a souvenir and food concession on Bedloe's Island. She got nicked for $2,802 in New York sales and business taxes.

Mrs. Hill sought her money back, claiming Bedloe's Island is in New Jersey and that New York had no right to tax her.

But Justice Corcoran ruled: "The taxes were properly collected."

Justice Corcoran came upon an interesting complaint lodged by New Jersey in 1829.

"In it," the court revealed, "New Jersey alleged that in colonial times New York had 'wrongfully and forcibly' annexed herself of the said island."

New Atomic Tests

The Atomic Energy Commission in Washington announced plans for another series of tests for atomic and probably hydrogen weapons at the Eniwetok-Bikini proving grounds in the Marshall Islands in the Pacific. It said that men and materials would start moving to the islands this month. The new tests will be conducted by Joint Task Force 7, commanded by Maj. Gen. Percy W. Clarkson (above), of the U. S. Army (International.)
